

Update & Looking Ahead

Hello Fellow Members:

WREA/WRSD Meeting

WREA EBoard met with Superintendent Dr. McCall, Deputy Superintendent Bob Berlo, Human Resource Director Jeff Carlson and Special Education Director Christine Smith. Topics discussed include the need for better communication, more interaction between administrators and teachers, the lack of trust between teachers and administration, and the safety of the students and teachers presently in buildings. Another meeting is scheduled for next week at which time the details of the Town Hall meeting between Dr. McCall and the entire WREA body will be finalized.

School Safety Grievance

Class Action Grievance filed to support the safety needs of in person staff is scheduled for Wednesday, December 16th at 4 p.m.. The grievance meeting is open to any WREA member. You can attend as a silent participant or plan to speak and share your current working conditions. If you have a comment and do not wish to speak, we have members offering to read on behalf of others. The meeting link will be provided next week to WREA members who complete this Google Form: <https://forms.gle/rtLXV9jEKgUTdAiE8>

School Safety Grievance, Pre-meeting

A brief meeting will be held on Friday, December 11th at 4 p.m. to review the grievance hearing with members. Again, any member is welcome. This meeting is specifically focused on the grievance hearing, the agenda for the hearing and what members can expect, especially if they are speaking. This is the pre-meeting, not the grievance hearing:
